Dear Commissioner Burns:

This letter is in response to your inquiry of December 6, 2013 regarding costs associated with initiatives to support retail electric competition, relating to closed Docket No. E-0000W-13-0135.

With regard to your specific questions:

- (1) How much did your company, organization, shareholders and/or parent company spend to support your positions on retail electric competition...?
  - Exelon/Constellation spent $327,284 to support retail electric competition. This includes Exelon/Constellation's portion of shared costs. This does not include costs associated with legal counsel.
- (2) Please identify the approximate number of hours your salaried staff spent on the public relations campaign to support your position?
  - Exelon/Constellation staff work in multiple jurisdictions and do not allocate their time and expenses on an issue or initiative basis and consequently do not track their hours in such a manner.
- (3) If you are a regulated utility, will you be requesting compensation in a future rate case for funds expended to promote your views?
  - Exelon/Constellation is not a regulated utility in Arizona.

Please contact me with any questions you may have regarding this inquiry or the information provided herein at (512) 391-1952.

Sincerely,

William A. Scott
